How do I change the fields that are displayed in the database summary screen?

Edit -> Preferences -> Display Fields

For each column displayed in the database summary screen, use the drop-down list to select the field to be displayed. You can overwrite the column heading, if required.